

Poly (vinyl pyrrolidone) as an aid in Removal of Stains from Textile and Ceramic Materials

Judith A. Wright* and James F. Hanlan*

*National Historic Parks and Sites, Department of the Environment, 1570 Liverpool Court, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 1G2, Canada.

Art Conservation Program, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, K7L 3N6, Canada.

The effects of poly (vinyl pyrrolidone) as an anti-redeposition agent with five cleaning solutions on nine stain/substrate systems are reported. The cleaning solutions used were phosphoric acid, sodium hexametaphosphate, Versene Fe³⁺ Specific, Chel DTPA 41, Sequestrene AA (EDTA) and PVP K30.